Renewed commitment to worker participation in enterprise has placed the question of worker directors back on the policy agenda. Join us for an insightful discussion about the impact of worker directors, and an analysis of why, despite the introduction of co-determination at the plant level through workplace forums, labour has largely ignored the right to trigger work place forums.

A related workshop on ownership and control in the South African economy is being held on 25 March. Email for details if you wish to attend.
